DESPERATE FIGHTING

Band of Spanish Guerillas Wiped Out of Existence.

BATTLE WITH GEN. GOMEZ'S MEN.

Hand-to-Hand Conflict Lasting For Over an Hour—Of the Seventy Guerillas Not One Escaped Being Killed or Wounded. Report From the Raleigh—Day of Mourning For Marti.

HAVANA, June 28.—Details reached here of a desperate fight between a portion of the insurgents' force, under Maximo Gomez, in the province of Puerto Principe, and 70 of the auxiliary troops of the Spanish government, known as guerillas, under command of Captain Aguirre. The engagement took place on the day of the insurgent raid upon San Geronimo, as exclusively cabled to the Associated Press.

The 70 guerillas were surprised by the vanguard of Gomez's force, commanded by Nicasio Mirabel, and there was great slaughter on both sides, the fighting being mainly with machetes.

The guerillas were out on a reconnoitering expedition and unexpectedly came across the insurgent vanguard, consisting of about 400 men. At first the guerillas imagined they had only a comparatively small body of men before them and their commander, Aguirre, called upon the insurgents to halt, crying out: "Who goes there?"

"Spanish forces," was the reply of the insurgent leader as his men continued to advance rapidly upon the government guerillas. Twice or three times more did the guerillas try to halt the insurgents, but the latter pushed on quickly, until finally their leader, seeing that the guerillas were in an awkward position, cried: "At the machete." This cry showed the government force that they were confronted by insurgents and not by a detachment of Spanish guerillas as they had been led to believe, and the mask being thrown off, the guerillas replied to the then oft-repeated cries of "At the machete" with volleys from their carbines, as they commenced to retreat before the vastly superior force of insurgents.

Soon the government soldiers and the insurgent troops became engaged in a hand-to-hand combat, which quickly became little more than a massacre of the unfortunate guerillas. The insurgents in the meanwhile had been reinforced, until they are said to have numbered fully 1,500 men, composing the main body of men under the command of Gomez.

Against these overwhelming numbers the guerillas fought heroically, shouting: "Viva Espana," as they defended themselves as best they could against the enemy, using rocks or anything available behind which to shelter themselves, as they fired as fast as possible at the insurgents, who pressed forward from all sides upon the little band.

For an hour the fight lasted, and nothing could be heard but the rattle of musketry, the shouts of the combatants and the clashing of machetes. It is believed that few, if any, of the guerillas escaped being killed or wounded.

Captain Aguirre led his men gallantly, until an insurgent slashed at his horse's head with a machete, causing it to fall and throw the guerilla leader heavily to the ground.

The insurgents engaged with Aguirre's guerillas are believed to form part of the body of men which recently burned the towns of El Mulato and San Geronimo after capturing the forts and garrisons of those places and it is said the news of this fresh disaster has caused a very uneasy feeling in official circles.

There is no doubt that government officials are willing to admit these disasters to the Spanish army in Puerto Principe within a few days, and not far from the capitol of that province that the situation of affairs there must be very grave indeed and may prove much more so when Maceo, who is reported to have made his way from the province of Santiago de Cuba into Puerto Principe, joins his forces to those of Gomez.

That there is real cause for alarm may be gathered from the fact that it is reported in well informed official circles here that Captain General De Campos has cabled to the Spanish government asking for the prompt dispatch of large reinforcements of troops from Spain.

Advices received here from Santiago de Cuba says that an insurgent force, numbering about 400 men, has made an attack upon Tirihi, in the province of Santiago de Cuba, and that they were repulsed and are now in flight and being pursued by the Spanish troops.

CAMPUS ASKS FOR MORE TROOPS.

MADRID, June 28.—The premier, Senor Canovas del Castillo, announced yesterday that the ministry had received a cable dispatch from Captain General Martinez de Campos notifying the government that 14,000 additional troops will be required to enable him to undertake an offensive campaign in Cuba after the rainy season is over. The statement has caused some excitement, although the government has been making preparations for some time past to send additional troops to Cuba.

ANDERFER RECOVERS.

He Tells of Being Assaulted and Robbed of His Cuban Letter.

GAINESVILLE, Fla., June 28.—F. R. Anderfer, who was found on a lot Tuesday night in an unconscious condition, regained consciousness yesterday, and his statement appears to confirm the theory advanced that he was sandbagged, and an important Cuban letter taken from him.

Anderfer says he went out for a letter which he received from a private messenger. He carried his revolver in his hand, fearing an assault, as two men had been shadowing him lately. Near the hotel he put the pistol in his pocket. Soon after two men attacked him, a burly negro grabbing him, and, while holding him, the white man struck him on the back of his neck with something soft. Looking in his face the white man remarked: "That's the man we want."

The negro drew a knife and was about to cut Anderfer's throat, when the white man said "No, don't do that; I have something that will do the work better." Taking something from his pocket he scratched Anderfer's hand. It is believed that the instrument was a hypodermic syringe filled with poison. Anderfer then lost consciousness, and the men took the letter, which was in his pocket, and disappeared. The letter is supposed to be an important dispatch from Cuba, and the idea prevails that the men were sent here to remove Anderfer and secure the letter.

Advices from Cuba last night are that General Maximo Gomez has invaded the province of Las Villas, east of the province of Puerto Principe. Leaving in Puerto Principe 5,000 men under command of Lope Recio to hold the ground gained there, Gomez took with him all the horses the government had gathered for the regiment of lancers or cavalry, which is expected to arrive shortly from Spain.

AMERICAN YACHT SEIZED.

Her Two Owners Imprisoned at Havana by Spanish Officials.

NEW ORLEANS, June 28.—Ex-Commodore W. A. Gordon of the Southern Yacht club received a cable dispatch yesterday from attorneys in Havana, stating that the yacht Neptunus has been seized by the Spanish authorities and that her owners, George Agar and Bishop Dudley, have been imprisoned.

Both of these gentlemen are prominent in social and business circles, being members of the Cotton and Sugar Exchange. The Neptunus left here a few days ago in a cruise along the Florida coast, and then sailed across to Cuba. It is said the yacht was overhauled by a Spanish gunboat and towed into Havana.

Although the cable is very brief, it is supposed from its tenor that the Neptunus was suspected of carrying a filibustering expedition. There are several others in the party besides the two owners, but it is not known whether they were all placed in confinement.

George Agar is a partner in a well known firm of sugar dealers, which has for years had large transactions with Cuba in the way of importing. Mr. Dudley is a cotton broker. The seizure of the yacht and the imprisonment of its owners created no little excitement when the facts became known, and steps were at once taken to lay the matter before the secretary of the navy.

PALMA FOR PRESIDENT.

An Election Will Be Held All Over the Americas on July 10.

TAMPA, Fla., June 28.—Colonel Fernando Figueiredo stated last night that on July 10, all over the Americas the Cuban colonies will hold local conventions of representatives from local clubs to vote for a delegate to succeed Jose Marti, leader of the Cuban revolutionary party.

Two weeks ago the nomination was offered to Thomas Estrada Palma, principal of the Estrada institute, Central Valley, Orange county, N. Y. Palma was the last president of the Cuban republic, in 1878. There will be no changes from the general policy now followed. The Palma delegation, assisted by an able corps, will succeed the old organization called the Junta. Palma is virtually president of the Cuban republic now, his successor having never been elected.

REPORT FROM THE RALEIGH.

So Far as Learned the Neutrality Laws Are Being Obeyed.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Under date of June 22, at Key West, Captain Miller, commanding the Raleigh, reports to the navy department saying that he intended to make a cruise westward as far as Tampa bay, and concerning the filibusters, says:

"Matters here are again very quiet, and the conditions are such as to indicate that it is very improbable that any serious attempts to violate the neutrality laws will be made.

"The fact seems to be well established now that the party which left here on the 6th inst., numbered between 15 and 20 only, and that they were taken from the north end of the island by a small sailing vessel and probably transferred to some other vessel near the Bahamas."

Day of Mourning For Marti.

TAMPA, Fla., June 28.—Official news of Marti's death has been received here. The directory of Cuban leaders met yesterday and adopted resolutions, designating next Sunday as mourning day. The Cuban flag will be displayed draped and at half-mast in honor of Marti.

STILLWATER, Minn., June 28.—A notable wedding occurred here at noon yesterday, the principals being Miss Catherine Nelson, eldest daughter of Hon. and Mrs. John G. Nelson, and Schuyler Colfax of South Bend, Ind., only child of the late ex-Vice President Colfax. The couple left at 1:45 for Duluth and will spend a couple of weeks in a yachting tour of the great lakes. The bride is one of Stillwater's most prominent young ladies and the groom is president of the Colfax Manufacturing company of South Bend.

Several others were seriously injured, and it is thought that there may still be more dead who have not been extricated from under the ruins of the walls, which fell and crushed them.

The seriously injured so far as known are: Ed Thielen, lieutenant of hook and ladder company No. 2.

SAN FRANCISCO FIRE

Over a Million Dollars' Worth of Property Destroyed.

SCORES OF BUILDINGS BURNED.

Over a Hundred Families Rendered Homeless, Losing All Their Possessions—One Woman Burned to Death—Six Brave Firemen Killed at a Fire in Minneapolis. Several Others Badly Injured.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The most disastrous fire in many years broke out here about 6 o'clock yesterday evening in a box factory at the corner of Fifth and Bryant streets. A strong south wind was blowing and the flames spread rapidly.

The entire fire department was immediately called out, and for four hours the firemen had such a battle with fire as seldom fails to their lot. They could do nothing to stop the progress of the conflagration, and only timely change in the wind, which swept the flames back over the burned district, saved the entire district south of Market street from destruction.

Although many scores of buildings were burned the monetary loss was not large, as the fire was kept away from the richly stored warehouses in the district, and only cheap frame structures, occupied by poor laboring people and small manufacturers, were damaged. The loss will probably be over $1,000,000, with very little insurance, as the insurance companies have long avoided taking risks in that section.

During the first two hours of the fire there was not much excitement in the city, but when it grew dark and the sky became a mass of flames, the people from all parts of the city rushed to the scene. The police could do nothing with the mob which swept through the fire lines and the only impression made was when an engine came tearing along the street when the mass of humanity would part, fighting and struggling to get out of the way.

Among the residents of the fire district there was a panic. Hundreds of families tried to save their property, and in many instances had to be driven away by the firemen. Lachman & Company's huge winery was one of the buildings that stopped the progress of the fire, and when it was seen that even that brick structure was on fire, a groan went up from the crowd. The flames caught at one corner of the building and crept gradually along. The firemen deserted everything else and concentrated their efforts on this building. If that went nothing could save the railroad yards and freight houses. Finally the wind changed and that, with the efforts of the firemen, saved the wine cellars, and the worst of the fight was over.

It was the worst fire scare that San Francisco has had in many a day, and the most alarming reports of the progress and magnitude of the fire were current throughout the city. As it was, the flames wiped out one entire square and made holes in surrounding blocks. Probably 100 poor families have been made homeless, besides losing all their possessions. Another hundred or more of small manufacturing establishments, such as the furniture factory, machine shops, etc., have been destroyed.

One fatality has been reported—Miss Gilroy was covered with burning oil and perished.

Much annoyance was experienced from the trolley wires. The intense heat warped the iron posts and the wires were dropped to the ground. The firemen were afraid to go near them and the crowd gave them a wide berth. Finally the current was turned off at the powerhouse and the danger from that source was passed.

At midnight the fire was still burning, but the danger was over and the crowd went home.

Following is a partial list of the losses: Belmont hotel, $7,000; Belmont boiler works, $5,000; Pacific iron works, $15,000; San Juan Lumber company, $15,000; California Casting company, $3,000; Stanford House, $1,000; Euclid furniture factory, $8,000; Snyder & Rohrly, $5,000; Kuhler machine shop, $5,000; Fuller furniture factory and the San Francisco box factory, $15,000; Scott & Van Arsdale lumberyards, $25,000; St. Rose church, $20,000.

Other losses in small amounts are divided among hundreds of small manufacturing shops, stores and tenement houses.

FATAL FIRE IN MINNEAPOLIS.

Six Firemen Killed and Several Others Seriously Injured.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 28.—The most disastrous fire which ever visited Minneapolis accomplished its work of destruction and death last night. Within an hour after the alarm rang in at 11 o'clock, six firemen paid the penalty of death for their faithfulness in trying to save the property of others. The dead are:

Joseph Hay, truck No. 2, Walter Richardson, hose No. 6, Frank Rulaine, lieutenant of hose company No. 6.

John Horner, truck No. 3.

Bert Thomas, hose No. 10, died on the way to the hospital.

Unidentified, new member of engine company No. 14.

Several others were seriously injured, and it is thought that there may still be more dead who have not been extricated from under the ruins of the walls, which fell and crushed them.

The seriously injured so far as known are:

Ed Thielen, lieutenant of hook and ladder company No. 2.

Captain Cadwell, engine company No. 6.

The property loss consisted of the entire demolition of the building occupied by McDonald Brothers, dealers in crockery, chinaware, glassware, silverware and gas fixtures.

The building was of four stories, brick walls and wooden interior frame work and was well stocked. The fire ignited in the boxes and packing stored in the rear of the building and was beyond the power of the fire department to control. At a few minutes before midnight the walls fell, one side wall falling in and the other falling out into the alley where the firemen were at work. The total loss will aggregate over $260,000; insurance unknown.

AFTER THE TRAGEDY.

Editor Isenberg Still Alive and Likely to Recover.

SOUTH END, O. T., June 28.—The double tragedy here Wednesday in which D. W. Patterson, register of the United States land office, and City Marshal Williams were killed, has created the wildest excitement. Editor Isenberg's wound is serious though not necessarily fatal.

All three of the men had many friends and sides are being taken by the citizens. Isenberg came to Endi shortly after the opening, Sept. 16, 1893, and started The Daily Wave. He is a fearless fighter and writes with pen dripping with wormwood. He has made a practice of scoring his enemies mercilessly in season and out of season. He was opposed to Patterson primarily because he was what was termed a "carpet bagger," but more on account of his being a southerner.

The Wave is a Democratic paper, but it was not favored with the land office printing, and Isenberg attributed this fact to the machinations of Patterson.

Isenberg is one of the best known newspaper men in Oklahoma. Shortly after the strip opened he was assaulted by Editor Whitaker of the North End Tribune, who struck him when he was not looking. Before he could retaliate a crowd separated them.

Register Patterson was well liked. He was a brilliant public speaker and an enterprising courageous man.

A coroner's jury sitting over the bodies of Patterson and Williams, returned a verdict that Williams came to his death by a shot from the pistol of Patterson while Williams was in discharge of his duty, and that Patterson came to his death by a pistol shot fired by Officer Williams while Patterson was resisting arrest. Williams was buried yesterday in the city cemetery. Patterson's body was shipped to Macon. It is reported that several parties have already made application for appointment to the vacancy in the land office.

A DISGRACED CABINET.

New Foundland Seems Going to the Dogs Generally.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., June 28.—Sir Herbert Murray, British relief commissioner, sails for England on Saturday. Governor O'Brien has refused to invite any of his cabinet to meet the French commodore, Ricoloux, because they have been convicted of bribery and corruption. Men returning from the interior, where they went seeking work on the building of the railway. They complain of the hardships endured, many having been compelled to walk 50 and 100 miles and most of them are destitute. It is reported that the government will reduce the number of civil servants, cutting off 50. The supply bill has passed and also the bill rearranging reduced education grants. The Allen line steamer, Carthagena, has arrived and brought all the necessary discounts for arranging the loan. The first installment of the loan has been placed to the credit of the colony in London.

Wisconsin Lutherans.

LA CROSSE, Wis., June 28.—The Wisconsin district, composed of the several synods of Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan, of the German Lutheran church, met Thursday. The president submitted his report of the standing of the district—deaths, transfers and expenses, including a financial statement, showing a total debt of $34,975. This is principally for new buildings. Twelve churches received aid from the mission fund, amounting to $2,400. Officers were selected as follows: President, the Rev. Philip Von Rohr, Winona; vice president, John Bading, Milwaukee; secretary, Martin Eichmann, Menominee; assistant secretary, Philip Springling; treasurer, Charles Dowidat, Oshkosh.

Tornado at Put-in-Bay.

CLEVELAND, June 28.—News comes by boat of a tornado at Put-in-Bay islands yesterday afternoon. One wall of the brick town hall at Put-in-Bay was blown down, half the trees in Victory park were uprooted and great havoc wrought in the peach orchards. Telegraphic wires were blown down, and cable communication with the island cut off. The storm lasted half an hour, and is said to have been the worst in years. It caused consternation among the campers and summer boarders.

Captured Just in Time.

BALTIMORE, June 28.—William Boland and Arthur M. Dearborn are held here on suspicion of being the persons wanted in Cincinnati for attempting to pass a forged check on the First National bank. William Hartley, a third member of the party, is also under arrest. Boland is stated by detectives to be F. B. Ford alias Charles Fisher and William Neely. The three men, it is thought by the police, were about to "work" the local banks.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., June 28.—All glass works in Central City closed down yesterday for six weeks. The past year has been one of the most profitable to them in their history.

Fair, cooler weather.

THE "sound-money" Democrats got the platform and the silverites the nomination for Governor. Everybody ought to be happy now and go to work for the ticket.

THERE is not a Democrat in Kentucky that has done more for the party in past campaigns than General Hardin, and there is not a politician in the State that is more popular. This explains the handsome victory he won over all opponents at Louisville, and his victory this week may be put down as a forerunner of his victory next November.

JUST listen to this. The Keystone Iron Works, at Reading, Pa., after an idleness of three years, resumed work last Monday morning with a force of one hundred men. The works will be run day and night for the present. The Reading Hardware Works, employing twelve hundred men, began on the same day running on full time, from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m., and on Saturday to 4 p. m. For a long time the works have been run but nine hours per day, and the Saturday half holiday. Such jolly information as this takes from the calamity horn its melancholy notes and leaves the piper a sorry looking object, indeed, truly remarks an exchange.

A PRESS telegram from Mauch Chunk announces that the Carbon Iron and Steel Company's plant, at Parryville, which has been shut down over a year, has resumed operations, and that in the interval improvements amounting to $100,000 have been made to the plant. Facts like this, which are daily reported, contradict, in the most emphatic manner, the wailings of the McKinley journals that our industries have been ruined by the Wilson tariff. The fact is, no doubt, that the Wilson tariff and its free list have stimulated them all to renewed energy with the prospect before them of unexampled prosperity under the new conditions.

THE platform adopted by the Democrats at the Louisville convention this week reaffirmed "without qualification the principles and policies declared by the National Democratic platform of 1892." Here's what the platform of 1892 says on the financial question: We hold to the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country and to the coinage of both gold and silver without discrimination against either metal or charge for mintage, but the dollar unit of coinage of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value, or be adjusted by international agreement or by such safeguards of legislation as shall insure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals and the equal power of any dollar at all times in the market and in the payment of debts; and we demand that all paper currency shall be kept at par with and redeemable in such coin. We insist upon this policy as especially necessary for the protection of the farmers and laboring classes, the first and most defenseless victims of unstable money and a fluctuating currency. That's to the point and is exactly in line with the policy that has been followed by all "sound money" Democrats.

THE FREE SILVER CRAZE SUBSIDING.

"It is not strange that the agitation for the free, independent, unlimited and immediate coinage of silver is dying out," says the New York World. "The sound-money Democrats are shown to be in a majority in Kentucky. The Kansas silver meeting was a little short of a fizzle. The Southern editors, polled by telegraph, are against the crusade. The rampant free-silverites in the convention of Republican Leagues were powerless in that body.

"And why not? What's the matter with existing conditions that the country should get hot over silver?

"Are not wages advancing, prices tending upward, industries thriving, commerce increasing and trade reviving? Are not melons ripe in Georgia and strawberries in their prime around New York? Is not corn "just a-leapin'" and all growing things rejoicing in the glorious June weather?

"As for money, is it not plenty and cheap for those who have any equivalent or security to give for it? And if the mints could turn out a million silver dollars a day, would they be any easier to get for those who have neither equivalent nor security to give for them?

"What is the occasion for any midsummer madness over either gold or silver, over politics or jingoism? What's the matter with improving the better times, and hustling with the rest to get ahead or taking vacation comfort if fortune favors you with a resting spell? The American people appear to be again vindicating their good sense."

OUR RECORD.

What the Democratic Party Has Done For Kentucky.

Ringing Resolutions on State Issues Adopted by the Convention This Week.

Those sections in the platform adopted at Louisville this week relating to National questions were given in our dispatches yesterday. Section 4 related to State issues and on this subject the platform is as follows:

When the Democratic party came into power in 1867 the bonded indebtedness of Kentucky was over $4,600,000; the nominal value of the assets of the sinking fund was about $5,000,000, made up in part of internal improvements that cost over and were carried at a valuation of $4,800,000, but which yielded at that time no net revenue, and were worth in cash only about $500,000, thus showing an actual deficit in the sinking fund as compared with our indebtedness of about $900,000. Since 1867 the bonded indebtedness has been reduced to $650,000, and the available assets of the sinking fund more than equal that sum.

We have increased the annual appropriation for support of our charitable institutions from $25,000 in 1867 to $300,000 in 1895, and, while improving our judicial system by increasing the number of courts and the frequency of their terms, we have been compelled to increase our expenditures (one of the greatest items of which is the cost of criminal prosecutions, and a noticeable fact in connection with which is that the increase is greatest in districts controlled by Republican officials).

We have, nevertheless, been able to decrease the current rate of taxation for general revenue purposes from 20 cents on the $100 of taxable property in 1867, to 15 cents in 1895. The Democratic majority have voluntarily increased the annual expenditures for the support of common schools from $256,000 in 1867, to about $2,000,000 in 1895, and by wisely providing separate schools for the two races, are to-day giving to the children of the colored race opportunities for education they nowhere else enjoy. In the face of unexampled difficulties the Democratic party has succeeded in wholly withdrawing convict labor from competition with free labor in abolishing the practice inherited from the Republican party of leasing the convicts to parties interested solely in making profit of their labor and in adopting the modern and improved methods by which the State and its officers are made directly responsible for the management of our State prisons and under which our penitentiary system has been and is being greatly improved.

During the twenty-eight years the people have entrusted the Democratic party with the control of the State government, its administration has been characterized by the strictest economy and integrity, and in this regard we invite comparison with any Republican State government.

We express our confidence in the wisdom and honesty with which the present State administration has conducted the affairs of our State government.

A SOLID RESERVE.

A Republican Journal Endorses the Democratic Administration's Financial Policy.

[Cincinnati Times-Star.]

The gold reserve has reached the $100,000,000 mark, and it looks as if it would stay there. Financial conditions are now comparatively favorable.

The Belmont-Morgan-Rothschild people have been fully as good as their word up to date. They promised to protect the Treasury. It was no small task. Not only was there danger of a raid by speculators who found the greenback a convenient instrument for breaking into the gold reserve, but the precarious financial and business situation in this country a few months ago had a bad effect abroad and a dumping of American securities on the market was threatened. This would have brought a panic and the Treasury could not have escaped disaster. To fulfill this promise the syndicate had to control the rate of exchange, bring $25,000,000 or $30,000,000 of gold from Europe, build up confidence abroad in American securities and thus ward off the impending avalanche. They have done it all, at what cost nobody on the outside can tell.

Much has been said about the profits of the syndicate. No doubt they were handsome, after deducting every item of cost, but the profits of the American people have been far greater. Who can estimate the losses that would have resulted from a panic? Moreover, the restoration of confidence among the holders of American securities in Europe and the consequent stiffening up of prices has had a direct effect on values in this country, stimulating the industries and business in general. The syndicate is a great money-making machine, and never works for nothing; but nobody should withhold the credit due for what it has accomplished in behalf of the Treasury and of American credit.

PLAY BALL.

That's What the Maysville Lads Will Have to Do To-day,

When They Face Buck Ewing and His Cincinnati Reds—Short Stops.

Maysville's ball players will go up against the Cincinnati Reds at the new park this afternoon, and if they come out as well as the team did with the Cleveland "Spiders" last fall all their friends will be satisfied. The locals, however, are not in quite as good shape as the team last fall, and too much must not be expected of them. They will give the Reds the best they have got in the shop, and, if Rieman is in good trim, here's a prediction that the Cincinnati pets will not have any picnic.

The admission for this game has been placed at 50 cents for men and 25 cents for ladies.

The game will be called at 3 p. m. Mathews will umpire.

SHORT STOPS.

The Reds will arrive on the Fast Flyer at 1:36 p. m.

Keenan, Maysville's new pitcher, arrived this morning.

"Willie Green" Hill is catching for the Columbus, O., team.

The Norwoods have signed Lever, ex-Maysvillian, and Emig to pitch.

Taylor, one of Philadelphia's pitchers, sent eleven men to first on balls in a game this week.

The Maysville player who gets the most hits in this afternoon's game will receive $10. A "fan" has put up the cash.

That was a great game between Brooklyn and Washington Wednesday. Thirteen innings and only one run, the Bridegrooms winning.

WILSON-COLLIS.

An Orangeburg Merchant Weds One of the Fair Daughters of That Vicinity Thursday.

The beautiful country residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Collis, near Orangeburg, was the scene of a happy event yesterday.

At 2 o'clock their daughter, Miss Mamie Marie, and Mr. Henry P. Wilson plighted their vows at the marriage altar. Rev. Mr. Smithers, pastor of the Christian Church, officiated, and in a beautiful ceremony spoke the words that made the happy couple husband and wife.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Squire Lewis M. Collis, and a granddaughter of Mr. Matt B. Tolle, of this city. Her departure from the home of her childhood will be regretted by the large circle of friends who admire her for her many amiable and loving traits, as well as for the bright characteristics of lofty womanhood. She never looked lovelier than when attired in her wedding gown of white faille silk, with point lace and ribbon trimmings.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson, of North Liberty, Ohio. He has been engaged in the dry goods business at Orangeburg for some time.

His past life and sterling traits of manhood have won him the esteem and respect of the community, and his many warm friends join in good wishes for the future happiness of himself and bride.

The attendants were Miss Elizabeth Tolle, of this city, and Mr. Marma Collis, aunt and brother of the bride.

Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. After congratulations, the couple left for North Liberty, the home of the groom, on their bridal trip.

KIDNAPERS IDENTIFIED.
Police Have Discovered Who Tortured Mr. Cottle at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, June 28.—A startling and untold part of the Cottle kidnaping sensation has been learned from one of the officials who made the investigation. This story fastens the identity of the leader of the plot. His name is John C. Emory, once a prominent citizen of Buffalo.

Some years ago Emory, who was living in Cincinnati, was arrested for violation of the postal laws. He was tried, convicted and sentenced for a long term of imprisonment, but escaped, and made his way to Canada.

After a time he opened negotiations with Mr. Cottle, who was an old friend, for securing a pardon from the governor of Ohio, and offered to spend money liberally to secure it. Mr. Cottle promised to do what he could for him, and Emory paid over a large sum, said to be between $5,000 and $17,000.

Whatever Mr. Cottle may have done for his client he did not get him a pardon, and Emory demanded the return of the money, which was refused. Emory then wrote that he could not come to the United States to sue for it, but he would take other means to get it. It appears he then obtained a confederate and planned this job.

It is also learned that ever since Monday noon Edward P. Cottle, the lawyer's son, was in Fort Erie negotiating with Emory for the return of his father, Emory holding out for a larger sum than the Cottles were willing to pay. The man who drove Mr. Cottle to the Bayes street house is General Allen, also an escaped convict. The police are trying to find Emory, but so far have been unsuccessful.

SICKENING EXECUTION.

Michael McDonough, the Kenton Wife Murderer, Hanged at Columbus, O.

COLUMBUS, June 28.—Michael McDonough, the Kenton wife murderer, was hanged at 12:08 this morning in the penitentiary annex. The execution was a sickening one. The rope cut deep into the neck when the body dropped, severing the trachea and jugular vein. The blood spouted over Dr. Jones, one of the physicians, who was standing under the scaffold, then flowed in a torrent to the stone floor of the room. Some of the spectators turned white and with difficulty kept their nerve. The heart beats ceased in just 11 1/2 minutes.

McDonough exhibited the utmost indifference to his fate up to the time he went on the scaffold. He was the coolest man who ever sat in the death cell. On the scaffold, however, he became very nervous and his knees were trembling very noticeably when the trap was sprung. He fell over seven feet, but McDonough was 60 years of age, and his neck did not have the muscular resistance of a young man. This was the first bungling execution in the penitentiary in 10 years.

McDonough's crime was the stabbing of his wife in Kenton, O. He had served a term in prison for shooting her and had been released about a year when he committed the deed.

ANOTHER WHOPPER.

Two Greenup County Lads Have an Exciting Time With a Big Fish.

GREENUP, KY., June 26.—While James and Samuel Hare, sons of Basil Hare, a prominent farmer in that neighborhood, were fishing in Schultz creek this morning Samuel, the younger, fell asleep and while in this condition large fish caught hold of his hook, pulling him into the creek.

The older brother ran to his assistance and jumped into the stream, but both of the boys were unable to land the fish and were carried over the falls in the creek almost a quarter of a mile below where they were fishing. The younger boy was badly bruised and will not likely recover.

A man working in a field close by heard the screams of the boys as they went over the falls and had he not rescued them they would both have been drowned.

No Sunday Shaving.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., June 25.—After July 1st, all barber shops in Illinois must remain closed on Sunday. The Cody bill has become a law, Gov. Altgeld neither approving nor vetoing the same. This bill, which is entitled “An act to prohibit barber shops from keeping open on Sunday,” was introduced at the request of the Chicago Barbers’ Union, representing, it is claimed, 10,000 members of the craft in Illinois.
